

CSEA Faculty Excellence Award
2011-2012 Nomination Form

Purpose:

The CSEA Faculty Excellence Award was created to recognize CSEA members who demonstrate distinction in an area of service, teaching or leadership. Each year, two faculty will be selected to receive a $500.00 cash award, as well as a plaque for the award winners. A recipient of the award will not be eligible to win the award in two consecutive years.

Who can nominate:

Any Columbus State CSEA member. Faculty may not nominate themselves.

Criteria:

CSEA members are eligible to be nominated for this award for their achievements in one or more of the following areas:

- Significant participation or leadership in a professional organization (not limited to CSEA)
- Innovation in instruction
- Commitment to student success
- Community service
- College service

Process:

Complete the nomination form. Nomination forms can be found on the CSEA web site at <http://www.cseafaculty.org/> . Nominations will be collected during the fall term (September 21, 2011 to December 10, 2011). A five member panel of CSEA Association Representatives will collect the nomination forms and contact each nominee. The nominee will then be asked to submit a two page description of their designated activity. The panel will review the submissions and vote. Presentation of the awards will be in the spring term.
